

OREGON PEACEWORKS

CURRENT PROJECTS

Ending the Iraq War

1. Lobbying Oregon's congressional delegation directly
2. Urging members and supporters to lobby for an end to the war
3. Supporting civil resistance at senatorial offices
4. Helping organize cooperative peace demonstrations

Portraying the Federal Budget as a Moral Document

1. Offering interactive presentations on the federal budget in faith congregations around the state through OPW's innovative Faith and Values Project
2. Providing relevant material to religious leaders directly and via our website to help them lead on this issue
3. Providing suitable bulletin material for religious congregations

Promoting the SMART Security Plan

1. Offering workshops and presentations on SMART whenever possible
2. Bringing up the SMART peace vision at every opportunity
3. Running the "SMART Stuff" column regularly in The PeaceWorker.
4. Using the SMART Security Plan as OPW's guiding strategic plan

Building the Oregon Peace Movement

1. Serving as Oregon's most active peace networking group
2. Providing weekly emailed action alert summaries and peace calendars
3. Publishing The PeaceWorker (now in its 19th year)
4. Organizing Oregon's second statewide peace summit for early 2007
5. Offering peace networking tools on our website www.oregonpeaceworks.org

Remembering to Celebrate

1. Putting on Oregon's best peace party, the Give Peace a Dance/Mardi Gras Gala in Feb.
2. Honoring the Peacemaker of the Year as part of the Salem Peace Lecture Committee
3. Sponsoring our annual Holiday Party in conjunction with our Annual Meeting

To become involved with any OPW project, please call 503-585-2767 or email info@oregonpeaceworks.org. To make a donation to Oregon PeaceWorks, please send your check to Oregon PeaceWorks, 104 Commercial St. NE, Salem, OR 97301 or use a credit card on our website at www.oregonpeaceworks.org.